

PRESS RELEASE

Judge Michael P. Kelbley and Judge Steve C. Shuff of the Seneca County Common Pleas Court, General and Domestic Relations Divisions, hereby announce that the Common Pleas Court will remain open only for essential hearings. Non-essential hearings will be continued by the Court to a later date.

ALL parties should contact their attorney or the proper Court to determine if their particular case is going forward or is continued to a later date.

No persons will be summoned as jurors for jury trials for the next 30 days. All current Jury Trials are postponed.

We thank everyone for their cooperation and for their understanding during this public health crisis.
